THE SABBATH QUIETUDE IS BROKEN BY A $2,000 BLAZE

THE ZERO WEATHER BRINGS USUAL FIRE

Flames Do $2,000 Damage to the Building and Goods in the Structure Owned By David Rosenberg Early Yesterday Morning

WAS A TWO STORY BRICK

Fire Had Its Origin On Second Floor, And Was Caused, It Is Thought, By Flames Igniting the Bed Clothes From a Gas Stove Near a Bed

With the thermometer registering from six to ten degrees below zero yesterday morning, the coldest weather of the winter, the proverbial fire occurred in Charleroi. The first alarm was sent in from Box 35 at 5:55 o'clock, and the second from Box 33 at 6 o'clock. The fire did damage to a two-story brick building at 421 Fallowfield, owned by David Rosenberg of this place, and did a total damage estimated at $2,000. By the quick response of the fire department and its excellent work, the flames were kept confined to the burned quarters.

The fire had its origin on the second floor in a rear bedroom. This floor is occupied by a woman and two children, who, however, were away from home. The woman and her children occupy three rooms, the same suite of rooms which were tenanted by a dentist, at a conflagration of a similar character which occurred there about a year ago. This time it is said that the flames were caused by the ignition of the bed clothes from a gas stove in close proximity to the bed. (In this connection it might be said that it would be well for people to turn the fire off from gas stoves when they leave the house or on going to bed at night.)

The first floor of the structure is occupied by Benny Itzkovitz, who conducts the Sanitary Meat Market there, and his loss is said to have been principally caused by smoke and water.

Yesterday morning, as the coldest of the year, caused no little suffering. Owing to the fact that the winter has been an open one, many people were either out of coal or their supply was short to the extent that they had failed to provide in the emergency. As a consequence, there were a number of frozen water pipes, and the services of local plumbers were invoked and were brought into requisition today.

CHURCH FOLK OF MONESSEN HOSTS

The Young People's Auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal church of Monessen, entertained a large number of members from the parishes of Charleroi, Brownsville and Monongahela yesterday afternoon with a Conference for Young People. Rev. F. C. Lauderburn of the Trinity church, Pittsburgh, the Diocesan chairman of Young People's work was present and addressed the assemblage. His talk was extremely interesting and highly beneficial, giving the organizers many splendid ideas and advice as to their club and church work.

An open discussion followed the address, during which time short talks were heard from the president of each club. Walter T. Bromwich, president of the Crozier club of this place, gave a general review of the work of the club and its accomplishments. The afternoon was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments by the Monessen members and everyone departed feeling that they had spent a most enjoyable and profitable afternoon.

INTENSE COLD KILLS ABOUT 50 PERSONS

Approximately 50 persons have died during the past 60 hours as a result of the intense cold wave that has swept the middle west and now centering in the east and south. Many of the victims have frozen to death. Others succumbed to exposure, and still others were burned to death from fires resulting from the cold wave and others in accidents due to the icy condition. Chicago leads with a total of 18 deaths; New Orleans is next, with six deaths; St. Louis reports 5 casualties, Pittsburgh reported 4, and Philadelphia 3.

Body Of Man Found In Monongahela River Is Buried Unidentified

Remains of an unknown man found floating in the Monongahela river at Fredericktown on Friday, were interred yesterday by Deputy Coroner A. J. Haggerty. The body remained unidentified.

From the condition of the remains, it was thought that the body had been in the river for a month. It was so badly decomposed that the features were unrecognizable. There was nothing in the clothes to furnish any clue as to the name or probable home of the dead man.

There is a possibility that the body was carried by high water from some point in the state of West Virginia.

$10,000 BLAZE AT BAUM BOULEVARD

Pittsburgh, January 7—(United Press)—Six families fled to the street when fire broke out in a three-story brick apartment house at Baum boulevard early today. The fire started when a Christmas tree became ignited from a gas jet. The fire loss is estimated at about $10,000. 17942*

COREY MAKES BOOZE HAUL

Constable George W. Corey made a raid on a residence located at 706 Lookout avenue, Friday evening, where he placed under arrest one Daniel Lossolites. At the number named, he found a still containing one-half barrel of mash and 12 quarts of liquor.

The hearing of Lossolites was heard on the same evening before Squire Paul R. Nutt. The accused pleaded guilty and was held by the justice for court in the sum of $500 bail.

Fruit Stores Are Closed Here Yesterday

Persons who are active in Sunday Blue laws closing enforcement are said to have been meandering around the fruit stores yesterday. The stores were open, but the fruit stores of the borough were closed—the lid closed down tight as a drum; so whatever summons are made before justices of the peace will not involve Charleroi fruit stores.

The fruit store at the Charleroi-Monessen bridge, North Charleroi, was open all day, and people who wanted fruit, milk, and the articles that a store of this description carries, were obligated to go there—or go without.

WOMAN PAYS THE TAXI BILL

Miss Geraldine Hartzell, originally of New Castle, but now living in the classic precincts of Wireton, accepted the invitation of one Peter Wells, who represented himself, it is said, as a secret service man, for a joy ride, the trip to be taken ostensibly to Perryopolis and other points adjacent. Miss Hartzell, it is said, was walking along the streets of Charleroi Saturday afternoon, when accosted by Wells. At any rate, nothing loath, she went along. It is said that among other representations made by Wells was that $2,500 was awaiting his receipt for the money at Belle Vernon, but it is alleged, that this coin of the realm did not materialize.

According to report, the couple turned up at Perryopolis yesterday morning. Wells hired a taxicab here, and yesterday morning while he took Miss Hartzell into a restaurant, he left her saying he would return in a few minutes. The reputed secret service man has not been seen since.

Awaiting his return anxiously, the taxi and the young lady were returned here, where she was obliged to get some $65 which accrued for the use of the taxi. She was picked up here by Chief of Police James A. David R. Duval to pay the taxi fare, after which she was allowed to return to Wireton.

AUTO IS EVEN MORE POPULAR

As the New Year is under way the automobile is seen coming into a greater era of popularity which will bring it more intimately than ever into the commercial and social life of the nation.

This is the opinion expressed by officials of the Ford Motor Company, which itself has during the year just ending enjoyed the greatest business in its history. The opinion is based upon reports received from various sections of the country and upon dealer estimates coming in for 1924.

These all indicate not only a growing prosperous condition generally, but a greater tendency toward the use of automobile, both as a passenger carrying vehicle and a commercial haulage unit.

Memorial Hall In The County Seat Agitated

With the idea in view of having erected in Washington, Pa., a Soldiers' Memorial hall, along the lines of the Soldiers' Memorial hall in the Schenley district, Pittsburgh, but of course, not on so pretentious a scale, petitions are to be circulated at once, as provided by law, which petitions will be presented to the county commissioners at an early date, asking that the proposition be laid before the February grand jury.

The law provides that such a petition shall be signed by fifty citizens, but those interested in the movement expect to have these petitions circulated all over the county and signed by hundreds of citizens and taxpayers.

The matter is being taken up under the provisions of the act of 1921, "authorizing the erection and construction by counties of memorial halls in memory of the soldiers, sailors and marines of such counties, providing for an election to determine whether such hall should be erected; providing for the purchase and condemnation of property for such purposes; regulating the use of such halls, and providing for the maintenance and care of the same, by a board of control, at the expense of the county."

Body Of Man In the River At 2 Today

The body of a man of unknown identity was taken from the Monongahela river at Second street this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The body was seen floating down the middle of the river, feet downward, by W. L. Abel and Charles Wettle, of the Boat house at Second street.

Deputy Coroner M. T. Crowley was called and with their combined efforts the trio succeeded in securing the body.

The man has a light complexion, light brown hair and moustache, and is about 5 feet, 9 inches tall. His clothes are patched, undoubtedly a working suit. He is probably a foreign speaking man.

A PRIEST HAS A NARROW ESCAPE IN CHURCH FIRE

Rev. D. J. Haggarty, pastor, narrowly escaped death by fire which swept St. Clair's Catholic church, Wilson and Miller avenue, Clairton, yesterday afternoon, causing damage estimated by Clairton authorities at $90,000.

The priest, despite entreaties of members of his congregation, battled his way through smoke and flame into the burning edifice to rescue the Host and chalice. As he dashed out of the flaming structure the front wall collapsed, followed a moment later by the collapse of the entire building.

The aged mother of the Rev. Haggarty was carried from the rectory, which adjoins the church, when the rectory was menaced by flames. She was taken to the home of a neighbor suffering from shock.

Unable to reach the fire because of insufficient hose, it is said, the firemen were compelled to stand by with other spectators and watch the church building burn to the ground.

Companies were summoned from Duquesne and McKeesport, but they arrived too late to save the church building. It was believed that the fire

DeMarco's Big Chance Comes This Evening

Looming up as the bout that will decide the next opponent of Johnny Dundee in a fight for the junior welterweight title, DeMarco has, for both that title and the featherweight crown which Dundee won from Eugene Criqui, Motor Square Garden's feature this evening between Cuddy DeMarco of Charleroi and Louis "Kid" Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., who already holds the junior lightweight and featherweight titles of New England, promises local pugilistic fans a near-championship battle as well as a chance to see two scrappers in action who are admittedly in line for the tottering throne of the famous "Scotch wop."

Kaplan, with a string of victories over the leading boys of his weight, took the bout with DeMarco as a last desperate effort to force recognition from the dual titleholder, in event, of course, he is the winner over the local boy.

DeMarco sees in a victory over Kaplan a chance to leap into the limelight as the leading challenger for Dundee's title and, accordingly, has mapped out a plan of fighting that he hopes will put the New Englander on the canvas before the limit (Continued on page four)

Donora Council Will Organize Tonight With Three Changes In Body

Reorganization of the Donora borough council will take place this evening when three old councilmen will make way for the incoming officials. Anton Weis, W. W. Dennis, and F. G. Patterson, the latter filling the unexpired term of J. D. Fellabaum, resigned, will retire. Ben G. Binns, J. J. Noroski, and E. D. Morse will assume the positions in council which the former vacate.

Burgess Grant Furlong will administer the oath of office to the three new members and call the new council to order. With Burgess Furlong as chairman of the meeting a president of council will be chosen and he will assume the chair. J. W. Beeler, oldest member of the councilmanic body, is the likely choice for president. A borough clerk, treasurer, solicitor, chief of police, five patrolmen, desk sergeant, engineer, and various borough employees are to be elected.

A. J. O'Donnell, of the Donora Union Trust company, will probably be elected borough treasurer and changes are anticipated in the present list of officers and borough employees.

TENANTS SUFFER RENT INCREASES

There is indignation among the tenants in this district, especially in West Homestead over the action of some landlords in increasing the rent, on account of Homestead Borough securing water from the city of Pittsburgh. While Homestead and West Homestead have not secured the water, the landlords have already increased the rent.

In some cases the rents have increased from $2 to $5 per month. Under the present plan all the residents of West Homestead with the exception of a number of families on Seventh avenue, who are supplied with water by South Pittsburgh, are compelled to make application to James Schick, Borough Clerk of Homestead and deposit $5 for installation of a water meter.

For years West Homestead borough has taken water from Homestead, who had men read the meters, and collect all the water rents.

This system will be continued by West Homestead Council and the tenants can see no justification for the advance of the rents.

DONORA HAD THREE FIRES YESTERDAY

Donora was the scene of three fires yesterday. The worst one probably occurred last night at 10:45 o'clock, when an overheated furnace caused damage to the extent of $1,000 to the home of Robert Campbell of Bracklaw avenue, a double frame construction. The Donora firemen worked under extreme difficulties, the flames being confined between the walls of the house, they being obliged to tear up the flooring and walls many times before they succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Other difficulties arose also, when the nozzle of the hose froze and they were obliged to lay a whole new hose.

Brownsville, January 7—(United Press)—Guests and the clerk of a local hotel were amazed last night when Charles Matlock came into the lobby and started playing a harp with the points of two pistols.

The clerk sneaked out and brought in a state police. Matlock resisted this and opened fire. Finally with the aid of railroad and local police, Matlock was subdued with bullets in his wrists and body. He is reported in a critical condition in the Brownsville General hospital.

Rev. C. B. King, D. D., Coming Here From Sewickley, And Will Preach His First Sermon on Sunday, January 20

HAS MADE A FINE RECORD

Was Instrumental in Building Churches, Increasing Memberships, And Liquidating Church Debts, Aside From His Ability As a Minister

Rev. C. B. King, D. D., who has had a charge at Sewickley, has accepted a call to Christ Lutheran church of Charleroi, and will begin his duties here on Tuesday, January 15. The divine will preach his first sermon on Sunday morning, January 20. He succeeds the Rev. J. Walter Bressler, who resigned to accept a call at Oak Harbor, Ohio, where he is now located. Rev. King, who comes to the local charge bearing the highest recommendations as a man and christian minister, is a graduate of Susquehanna University. His first charge was at Apollo; found 165 members in the three churches of the charge; left with a membership of approximately 550, so it is evident that he is a church builder.

His second charge was St. Mark's Mission, Northside, Pittsburgh, where he was pastor for a period of eight and one-half years. While there he was instrumental in the building of a church costing $16,300, and seeing the same paid for. When he assumed charge the church had a membership of 43; when he left there were 258, and a Sunday school of 350.

From 1899-1900 was a missionary superintendent and organized in all 15 congregations. Was pastor of the Bethel, Pittsburgh, church, from 1900 to 1917. The church society was increased under his pastorate from 170 to about 600 members. A $60,000 property was also paid for.

After going to Sewickley the church membership was doubled, and he built a $40,000 church. It is all paid for but $10,500.

Summarized he has organized 15 congregations and built seven churches, and dedicated 57 churches during the tenure of his ministry. Was associate president of the Susquehanna University for two and one-half years and raised for them an endowment of $110,000.

Miss Lenora Brunner of Charleroi is in the Monessen lockup and will probably be sent to Greensburg today for quarantine, following her arrest yesterday morning along with William Smith, who gave his address as Philadelphia, and Charles Messick, of Eddystone.

The trio spent the early part of the evening at a nearby roadhouse, where they created a disturbance. Smith was in a quarrel with the proprietor and blows followed a heated argument. They went to Monessen, and the young lady secured a room at a hotel. The next morning they were arrested when the proprietor of the hotel discovered the three occupying the one room. They were given a hearing and fined $25 and costs.

CHINATOWN'S PATIENCE ENDS.

In the course of many generations the Chinese have learned that peace is better than war, that the latter brings lasting tragedy as well as great costs and consumes energies that otherwise might be employed to permanent advantage. So they have cultivated peace and the patience it demands, both nationally and individually. They ask only to be let alone and are eager to mind their own business. But suddenly Chinese in the United States have shown a combative and even warlike spirit. A whole crop of movie actors and actresses have been chased out of New York's little Chinatown and warned to stay away. The patience of New York's little China is exhausted, and probably that of San Francisco as well.

The movies are to blame for this awakening in the slant-eyed sons of peace. The long dormant desire to fight. The movie folk have taken too many liberties. They have not only used our Chinatowns as a background for lurid drama of opium dens, gunplay and black magic, but have rehearsed and photographed these horrors before the very doors and under the very noses of respectable and inoffensive Chinese folk. Peaceable and honest Chinese tea and curio merchants got tired of seeing their community pictured as a sink of iniquities existing hardly anywhere except in shilling shockers and "thriller" films. So this last time, when the fighting and photographing of another Chinatown horror began, a threatening crowd grew with loud protest, and the movie folk were glad to make use of saving their skins by obeying the order to get out.

It may have seemed impolite," said the dozing father; "You are poor, but a little hardship will do her good."

THE CROPS.

The farmers may complain that they have realized $147,900,000 less for their wheat this year than last, but they have received $803,000,000 for their corn, and otherwise they have use for great thankfulness. Nature is been kind and the soil has yielded abundantly. According to the Department of Agriculture, American crops this year are worth $8,322,695,909, an increase of $880,000,000 over last year and of $2,693,000,000 over 1921. With live stock products added, there is a total of not less than twelve billions of agricultural wealth, and nothing of the vast gain in the value of farm lands. In the last pre-war year, 1913, American crops were valued at only six billions.

With a production of over three billion bushels, corn is the largest earner of money return to the farmer this year and is worth about a dollar more than in any pre-war year. There is a great yield of all the principal crops, including wheat, oats, rye, potatoes, tobacco, peanuts, beans, apples, peaches and oranges. The ten million bales of cotton are worth more than a billion and a half of dollars. Man may not have performed a full part, and legislators may have red, but nature has not failed and is even excelled her previous munificence.

According to a Washington correspondent, "the tip stick and rouge are no longer cherished implements of smart society in the capital." This is good news—if true—but seems doubtful whether the short career and influence of Mrs. Coolidge could alone be "responsible" for "the fading fad of carmine lips and heavy rouged cheeks."

"Politics has never known such a Santa Claus as Mr. Ford. He has deeded every chimney in all parties and left stockings bulging with remembrances."—New York World. At this time Mr. Coolidge is not the only beneficiary. Moore, Haddock, Woodward, et al., will no longer have to struggle against Democratic supporters of the "wizard."

Anti-tobacco reformers will be shocked to hear of the announcement of Dr. F. E. Grundrum, vice-president of the California State Board of Health, that tobacco is a "restorative."

In some cases of stomach trouble, not because of the nicotine, but because such treatment is "restorative," especially after meals.

Time has so greatly decreased that four years, why should not Attorney Banton of New York demand $100,000 more for the same service? It is an appropriate question for the same reason.

DEMARCO'S CHANCE

COMES THIS EVENING

is reached. Kaplan's record includes easy victories over Eddie "Kid" Wagner, the Philadelphia who annulled against Cuddy DeMarco recently; Johnny Shugrue, Lanny Frush, Freddie Jacks, Tommy Noleb, and a host of other larger and lesser lights of the fistic world.

"Dundee must recognize DeMarco as the leading challenger for the junior lightweight title, if not for the featherweight in event Cuddy wins over Kaplan tomorrow night," Jimmy Mason, DeMarco's manager, said yesterday.

"DeMarco has a better record than any one of a dozen boys who are clamoring for a chance at Dundee," Mason continued. "but has refrained from starting a direct campaign to force a bout with the champion until he has eliminated all the leading contenders. Kaplan is about the last of the good boys in the class and if DeMarco beats him he will go right after Dundee, who thus far has refused to come here for a bout."

"I'll have another champion."

The semi-final of the show, bringing together Brickly Ryan, the popular little Ellsworth miner, and Louis Janita, the Ohio flyweight sensation, who has camped unsuccessfully on the trail of Pancho Villa and Franko Genaro for some time, is running the main bout a hard race insofar as interest is concerned.

Janita has beaten one after another of the good boys in his class and a lot who are much heavier. He is a mere boy but Ohio fight experts see in him the fighter who will take the measure of either Villa or Genaro or both. He is managed by Mrs. E. G. Moore of Columbus, first fighter to appear at Motor Square Garden with a woman manager. Mrs. Moore has waged a brilliant fight to force recognition of her fighter, but to date has succeeded in getting not a word from either Genaro or Villa, she says.

The preliminary card includes three boys, who represent the Brown local clubs: Young Gray of the Round Corner club, Tommy Murphy of the Hazelwood Athletic club and John Bawler of the Triangle club. Lawrenceville, Md., and Bowler will clash in the second bout. They are 145 pounders of the light-and-take-it type.
